Fox Terriers

Height: 36 - 39cm

Weight: 6.8 - 8.6 Kg

Fox terriers live about 15 years. and need to be walked daily. they are high maintenance and require a lot of attention.

Perfect for families, they love human's, but not so much other dogs. they are very good at being guard dogs. You can be sure no one will arrive on your property unannounced they can be very loud!

They are highly intelligent and tend to steal. Especially if it's food. Or beg from you at dinner.

So don't be too surprised to come face to face with a pair of soft, brown eyes begging for scraps.

And when they are not doing that they like to sniff around where you were eating and lick the crumbs off the floor.

Fox terriers may not be suitable for some people or families so do your homework before buying a Fox terrier. For some Fox terriers can take time learning how to house train and if bored don't be surprised if the Fox terrier runs off with your socks, shoes or towels, basically that's sure to get a reaction from you!

Now on the subject of grooming. brushing loose hair is fine and they find it enjoyable, but may make it challenging for you as Fox terriers are very playful. Bathing only when needed.

please remember they are high maintenance and are playful will you want such a dog after the novelty worn off?

Or when you go out for some reason and left the dog alone for long periods of time?

Fox terriers are bold and smart, they can learn tricks and insist on being in a relatively dominant position in the pecking among your other pets.

your cat may find this rather upsetting at first. and be warned. They have been known to kill other animals like hamsters, chickens other dogs even cats. So be careful and be firm! You must be it's leader. it will look up to you as leader other it can cause behavior problems of varying degrees.
